

Launch of Quickstep Engineering Solutions (QES)

26 March 2024: We are thrilled to share that Quickstep Group has officially launched Quickstep Engineering Solutions (QES), providing cutting-edge solutions to our customers.

With over 20 years of expertise in Product Engineering, Automated Production, Project Management, Supply Chain, and Quality Systems, QES is well-equipped to support businesses on their journey to innovation and excellence.

Our team of professionals at QES are dedicated to bridging the gap for businesses, offering specialised expertise and unparalleled service to meet their unique needs.

We invite you to visit our new website at www.qesolutions.com.au to explore the current range of services. In phase two, we will showcase new capabilities and programs, such as braiding, hydrogen, UAS, and GWEO. Stay tuned as we continue to develop and add more exciting offerings.

QES will help propel our business to new heights by attracting new customers and programs.
